

Delaware's Department of Elections continues a tradition of participating in a staple of Delaware summer life, the Delaware State Fair.

Wilmington – Delaware's Department of Elections continues a tradition of participating in a staple of Delaware summer life, the Delaware State Fair. The Department returns to this year's Fair with a fun and engaging presence in the air-conditioned Exhibit Hall. Stop by to learn about Delaware's elections system, register to vote, update your voter registration, or learn some "fun facts" about Delaware's government and elections system – and maybe win some prizes, including a Kindle®!

"We look forward to participating in the Fair each year as a key piece of our outreach to Delaware's voters," said Delaware State Election Commissioner Elaine Manlove. "We hope that many voters will stop by to learn more about the services available for them. We are particularly proud of our iVote portal, a 'one-stop shop' where Delaware's voters can take care of just about anything elections-related, securely and at their convenience."

State Fair hours are: 12 Noon to 10 p.m. on July 23rd, and 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. from July 24th through August 1st. Find more information about the fair at the Fair's web site. Visit the Department of Elections web site for information about elections, voting and the iVote portal.